

AMERICA AND THE HOLOCAUST

NOVEMBER 8 | 8:30-3:30

HENRY AND SANDRA FRIEDMAN
HOLOCAUST CENTER FOR HUMANITY

What did Americans know and how did conditions in the United States impact Americans' responses to the Holocaust?

With special guest Rebecca Erbelding, Ph.D., historian at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum and a lead historian for the USHMM's new exhibition, "Americans and the Holocaust."

Participants will:

- gain practical tools and resources to teach about America's role in and response to the Holocaust
- identify and use materials that align with state standards
- be able to integrate new materials into their existing classroom lessons
- explore the new features of the Holocaust Center for Humanity's exhibit, "With My Own Eyes"

Geared toward teachers of grades 5-12.

$20 registration. Clock hours and lunch provided.

First-time attendees will receive a $15 Amazon giftcard!
