

HOLOCAUST

CENTER for

HUMANITY

Educate. Inspire. Take Action.

SURVIVOR VOICES

Bearing Witness from the Holocaust to Today

- For guidelines, historical context and lessons to teach about the Holocaust, please see the Washington state-required Best Practices.
- To learn more about the Holocaust survivors (and many more!) who settled in Washington, please see our Survivor Encyclopedia.
- Studies show that speaker testimony not only deepens student learning and fosters a greater likelihood of upstander behavior, but also increases critical thinking skills. To request a speaker, please visit our Speakers Bureau.
- Explore our museum -- in person or virtually! Our collection includes artifacts donated to us by Holocaust survivors and liberators.
- Questions? Want to learn more or discuss further ways we can support your instruction? Contact Paul Regelbrugge, Director of Education, at Paul@HolocaustCenterSeattle.org.

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

Viewer's Guide

As you watch the film, keep track of any new terms or words that you don't understand, or want to learn more about. Be prepared to share them with a partner and/or your classmates.

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

After watching the film, Survivor Voices, respond to the following questions and be prepared to share with a partner and/or your classmates.

What are your thoughts and feelings after viewing this film?

What is one thing that particularly resonates, or impacts you in this film? Why?

What images or people stand out? Why?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

What is one thing you learned that you didn't know before?

What surprised you? Why?

What did you find upsetting or disturbing?

What are two questions you have? What do you want to learn more about?

1.

2.

How did the voices of these individuals who experienced the Holocaust inform your understanding of this overall time period?

If you could ask Steve, Henry, Lauren, or Magda a question, what would you ask?

The title of the film is Survivor Voices: Bearing Witness from the Holocaust to Today. What does this title mean to you? What do you believe is one important lesson everyone can, or should learn from the Holocaust?