

Magda Schaloum

PIECE 2: An opportunity to hide

I had an opportunity to hide in a small village where nobody knew that I was Jewish – saying that I didn't look Jewish. But I couldn't leave my mother because always they said we are going to be taken away to work somewhere and I knew that my mother needs me, therefore I did not hide.